FAMILY MOVE IN!

Family Updates

We often talk about how we wish we had immediate housing. What many folks don't know is that there is no such thing as immediate housing. It takes time, applications, waiting lists, advocacy, and more to get a family housed. That's why every time a family moves in or out, we celebrate! We're happy to announce some recent move in's and out's!

We have one family who got paired with a housing voucher, two new families moving into Shelter, and one family who is moving into their new home this week!
